Subject: Advocate Europe - You're further! - Second Stage of Selection

Hurray!

We're excited and happy to contact you today to let you know that your project proposal

#215 POWERED by LANGUAGE: European Cohesion by role model stories giving access to One Language for All

has passed the first stage of the Advocate Europe selection. You can be immensely proud of yourself and your team!

As announced, we are coming back with more questions regarding your project idea. Please take a few minutes to read the email and understand what you need to do next to remain in the Advocate Europe idea challenge:

- We have attached a word document with some questions about your proposal that we need you to fill out
- We have attached our financial plan that we need you to fill out. Note: We have received nearly 600 applications and want to enable as many applicants as possible to implement their ideas. Therefore, please think if you can limit your expenses and requested budget. The word form above includes a field where you can let us know if you can reduce the amount of funding you requested.

The deadline for submitting these two documents to us is Wednesday May 13, 2015, 3 P.M. CET. We know it's not much time, but after all, this is a challenge ;).

Please read through the documents completely before coming back to us with questions. Thanks!

Additionally, we want to ask you share with us the answers to these questions:

- Who will be the users/listeners of the OER you produce? Your application refers to "leisure education", "schools", and "business". Could you please specify your target groups and the countries/locations where the people will be reached?
- Where do the stories about the cross-cultural role-models stem from? Are you writing them yourself? Are they developed in cooperation with the asylum seekers and local job seekers?
- What is the expected outcome of your Multiplier Event in 2016?

Next to phone, we can also be available for a Skype chat if needed (our skype account is AdvocateEurope). Please shoot us an e-mail if you have urgent questions that can only be solved via skyping.

We're looking forward to hearing from you!

Kind regards,
Julia
